WASHTENAW 100 ORGANIZATION ANNOUNCES ITS OFFICERS FOR 2008

(Ann Arbor, MI) – The Washtenaw 100 Club is pleased to announce its Officers for 2008. Serving as President is Jon Ichesco, Fire Chief, City of Ypsilanti; Vice-President is Ron Pinsoneault, Allstate Insurance; Secretary, Shannon Bellers, Adams Outdoor Advertising; and Treasurer, Neil Loney, Rogow & Loney, PC.

Additional Board Members include: Bob Barnes (Barnes & Barnes Property Management), Karl Barr (Barr, Anhut & Associates), Lawrence Brink (Lawrence Brink & Associates), Karl Couyoumjian (TeL Systems), Larry Doe (Ypsilanti Township), Tom Manchester (Manchester & Associates), Dan Minzey (Washtenaw County Sheriff), and Howard Weaver (H&H Distributing/Michigan Firehouse Museum).

The Washtenaw 100 Club began in 1971, as a means to provide immediate funding to families of Washtenaw County law enforcement or fire fighting personnel that died in the line of duty. This organization has grown to over 172 members and has expanded beyond its initial mission to now assisting with the education of children of law enforcement and fire fighting personnel in Washtenaw County through scholarships and assisting with special equipment need requests of local law enforcement and fire fighting departments wherever possible.
